

Kylin Gallery (8634 Wilshire Blvd, Beverly Hills) is pleased to present "Yoshio Ikezaki: Recent works". The exhibition will bring works from a new series by kylin gallery exclusive artist Yoshio Ikezaki.

Born in Kitakyushu, Japan in 1953, Yoshio intensively studied traditional Japanese papermaking with Shigemi and shigeyuki Matsuo, master papermakers in Yame, Fukuoka, Japan. Learning and experimenting papers for his own painting and sculpture. He creates paper for his own artworks in order to control the uniform thickness and fiber distribution taking ink's reaction to the paper into account and creating a ratio of different fiber materials.

Yoshio's work resides in the permanent collections of numerous institutions including Los Angeles County Museum of Art, Los Angeles; Museum of Art and Design, New York; Art Center college of Design, Pasadena; Kitakyushu City Museum of Art, Kitakyushu; Fukuoka Prefectural Art Museum, Fukuoka and more.

Image: Untitled, mixed Medium (sumi ink, Iron powder etc.) on handmade paper, 25 x 38 In.

---

Meanwhile, Kylin Gallery presents post-war prints exhibition in gallery Showroom I. Exhibiting work artists include David Hockney, Ellsworth Kelly, Robert Motherwell, Marc Chagall... Post-war Prints exhibition will remain on view through December 31, 2019.